To the rich man Jesus said:

“Go, sell what you own, and give the money to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; then come, follow me.”

At the last supper Jesus said:

“Follow me.”

To you and to me and to all of us Jesus says:

Prayer of Unburdening

Loving God, you call us to follow you, but we really go our own way. We do our Sunday morning check-in, and then check out by afternoon. Our first priority is not with you. Too often we do just enough to get by. When we choose to live in darkness, God, please send the light. Amen.

The Reading

Matthew 4:18-23

As Jesus was walking along the Sea of Galilee, he watched two brothers — Simon, who was called Peter, and Andrew — casting a net into the sea. They fished by trade. Jesus said to them, “Come follow me, and I will make you fishers of humankind.” They immediately abandoned their nets and began to follow Jesus.

Jesus walked along further and caught sight of a second pair of brothers — James and John, sons of Zebedee. They too were in their boat, mending their nets with their father. Jesus called them, and immediately they abandoned both boat and father to follow him.

Jesus traveled throughout Galilee, teaching in the synagogues, proclaiming the Good News of the Kin-dom of Heaven and healing all kinds of diseases and sicknesses among the people.

*Congregational Hymn

“You Have Come Down to the Lakeshore”

You have come down to the lakeshore
seeking neither the wise nor the wealthy,
but only asking for me to follow.

Refrain: Jesus, you have looked into my eyes;
kindly smiling, you've called out my name.
On the sand I have abandoned my small boat;
now with you, I will seek other seas.

You know full well what I have, Lord:
neither treasure nor weapons for conquest,
just these my fish nets and will for working.

Refrain

You need my hands, my exhaustion, working love for the rest of the weary —
a love that's willing to go on loving.

Refrain

You, who have fished other waters;
you, the longing of souls that are yearning:
O loving Friend, you have come to call me.

Refrain
